Japan, the latest reports say, must levy new taxes to meet expenditures. The emperor has so decreed. A few months ago this individual decreed the gold standard, and he has been decreeing more taxation ever since.

State Senator King is in favor of a union of the reform forces of the state and his desire in the matter will be concurred in by a majority of the Populists of Baker county. Senator King commands respect in his party from the fact that hesdoes not assume the role of boss or dictator. He believes sincerely in the cause of silver and believes that a union of forces is the only way to accomplish anything in behalf of the white metal.—Baker Dem.

Chairman Starr, of the Democratic state committee, recently said of the prospects of a union ticket in Oregon: "It is the province of the state com-"It is the province of the state committee to call the convention" said he.
